POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge

We hope we will never have to fact in the very mildest language possible. But for the kindly assistance of many friends and the patience of the primary election is hereby call to be held in the several voting precipets of the Thirteenth Circuit days prior to March 4, 1911, the name of many friends and the patience of our subscribers when we found we would be unable to issue a paper last Tuesday owing to inability to get our new press in running shape, we lour new press in running shape, we led to be held in the several voting precincts of the Thirteenth Circuit continued to our pressure of the Phitteenth Circuit continued to our presson for each voting precincts in said county, to net as challen ger and inspector for said candidate at said primary election.

9—The committee shall meet at 2 standard time, at the office of its Secretary, in Danville, Ky, on the lour new presson for each voting precincts of the Thirteenth Circuit consists. do not know just how soon a paper of judge of the Thirteenth Circuit been made, and canvass the vote could have been issued from the new office. As it is now, affairs in the new "print shop" are rapidly assumbled on the irrst Tuesday after the lirst Monday in November, 1911 to lift the unexpired term of said office caused by the death of Judge M. themselves of its advantages Along with its new Miehle press, the L J. has installed a brand new Chandler and Price paper cutter, which with its standard linetype unschine and its large assertment of upto-date ad and job type faces makes it without doubt the very best equipped country newspaper offic, in the stats of Kentucky.

And don't forget that there are mighty few papers in the state which give their subscribers two papers a week for the paltry sum of $1 a year. Now is certainly the time to subscribe.

The Courier Journal announced last week that Grahem Vreeland has retired as managing editor of that great paper to take a more remuner ative business position. Now we are not ore whit an Admirer . Mr. Vreeland's brand of politics but we want to say that any business enterprises which will secure his support deserves to be heartily congratulated ile will put more ginger and ability into it than any man it could possibly have secured. He is untiringly on the job and his friends hope he will make a million. The newspapers of the state owe him a debt of gratiride, for while a member of the Rig Four or "Third House" which absohave passed without his support.
